

Pioneer – Someone who is among the first to develop or explore something.

She was a pioneer in renewable energy, introducing solar panels to remote villages.

Voraciously – In an extremely eager or enthusiastic manner, especially with regard to consuming something.

He read voraciously, finishing three books in a single weekend.

In large part – Mostly or to a great extent.

Their success was in large part due to the team's dedication and hard work.

Celebrated (adj) – Widely recognized and praised.

The scientist was celebrated for her groundbreaking research in genetics.

Coin – To invent or create a new word or phrase.

The author coined the term "cybersecurity" long before it became mainstream.

At the cutting edge of – Leading or at the forefront of innovation or development.

This company is at the cutting edge of artificial intelligence technology.

Hardship – A difficult or painful situation, often involving struggle.

Many families faced financial hardship during the economic downturn.

Trait – A distinguishing quality or characteristic.

Patience is an important trait for a good teacher.

Intimate – Having a close, personal connection.

They had an intimate understanding of each other's thoughts and feelings.

Glimpse of – A brief look or partial view of something.

She caught a glimpse of the mountains through the dense fog.

Triumph – A great victory or achievement.

Winning the championship was a triumph for the entire team.

Cultivate – To develop or improve a quality, skill, or land.

He worked hard to cultivate strong relationships with his colleagues.

At the front line – In the most critical or active position.

Nurses were at the front line of the fight against the pandemic.

The greater good – The benefit of the majority or society as a whole.

She sacrificed personal gain for the greater good of the community.

Compassionate – Showing sympathy and concern for others.

The doctor was known for being compassionate toward his patients.

Emotional toll – The mental or psychological strain caused by a situation.

Caring for a sick relative can take an emotional toll on a person.

Persistent – Continuing firmly despite difficulties.

His persistent efforts eventually led to his success in business.

Campaign – An organized effort to achieve a goal.

The politician launched a campaign to promote environmental awareness.

Falter – To lose strength, confidence, or momentum.

His voice faltered as he tried to explain the situation.

Tribute – An act, statement, or gift that shows respect or admiration.

The concert was a tribute to the legendary musician.

Elegant – Graceful and stylish in appearance or manner.

She wore an elegant dress to the gala event.

Prose – Written or spoken language in its ordinary form, without poetic structure.

The novel's prose was simple yet deeply moving.

Account (noun) – A report or description of an event or experience.

The journalist gave a detailed account of the incident.

Bring to life – To make something seem real or vivid.

The director's storytelling skills brought the characters to life.

Match – To be equal to or correspond with something.

Her skills perfectly matched the requirements for the job.

Read – To interpret or understand written or printed material.

She read the contract carefully before signing.

Legacy (noun) – Something handed down from the past, especially achievements or traditions.

The scientist's legacy lives on through her groundbreaking discoveries.