

DAY 6 ARTICLE – WORDLIST

synchronize (UK usually synchronise) – to (cause to) happen at the same time:

- The show was designed so that the lights synchronized with the music.

agreeable – able to be accepted by everyone:

- The talks are aimed at finding a mutually agreeable solution.
- We must find a compromise that is agreeable to both sides of the party.

trial – C1 a test, usually over a limited period of time, to discover how effective or suitable something or someone is:

- They're doing clinical trials on a new drug.

emit – C2 to send out a beam, noise, smell, or gas:

- The alarm emits infra-red rays which are used to detect any intruder.

slam – B2 to (cause to) move against a hard surface with force and usually a loud noise:

- The wind made the door/window slam (shut).

be reconciled – When two people are reconciled, they become friendly again after they have argued:

- They were finally reconciled with each other, after not speaking for nearly five years.

purr – to make a quiet, continuous, soft sound:

- The cat purred as I stroked its fur.

cast/shed/throw light on sth – C2 Something or someone that casts/sheds/throws light on a situation provides an explanation for it or information that makes it easier to understand:

- As an economist, he was able to shed some light on the problem.

screech – to make an unpleasant, loud, high noise:

- She was screeching at him at the top of her voice.
- He was screeching with pain/laughter.

euthanize – put (an animal) to death humanely.

- Older dogs may find loving homes instead of being euthanized.

rule sth out – to prevent something from happening:

- This recent wave of terrorism has ruled out any chance of peace talks.

augment (formal) – to increase the size or value of something by adding something to it:

- He would have to find work to augment his income.

content – B2 pleased with your situation and not hoping for change or improvement: He seems fairly content with (his) life.

contentment (ALSO content):

- His face wore a look of pure contentment.

soothing – C2 making you feel calm:

- I put on some nice soothing music.

soothing – making something less painful:

- a soothing ointment

flask – a glass container for liquids with a wide base and a narrow neck, used in scientific work

picture – describe in a certain way:

- Biographers have pictured him as a St Francis

interlock – to fit together firmly:

- The edges interlock to form a tight seal.

digestion – C1 the process in which your body digests food, or your ability to digest food:

- a poor/good/strong digestion

incisor – one of the sharp teeth at the front of the mouth that cut food when you bite into it

flap – to wave something, especially wings when or as if flying:

- A small bird flapped its wings furiously and flew off.
- Flags flapped in the breeze above their tents.

asynchronous (formal) – not happening or done at the same time or speed:

- an asynchronous online course that can be followed from anywhere in the world